FROM THE CHAIRMAN'S DESK!

As we launch our Second Summer Season one wonders why it took us ten years to make the switch. Not only have we had a record crowd at our Grand final, but the quality of the game and the performance of the players improved out of sight mainly due to better ground and weather conditions. Without a doubt Summer Soccer is here to stay.

This year we also saw another World Cup and the emergence of small nations like Cameroon and Costa Rica as major Soccer forces.

It is now approaching twenty years since our last World Cup participation. With an ever increasing number of Socceroos playing in the top divisions in Europe as an indication of our playing strength, confidently predict that we will be in U.S.A. in 1994.

Once again I thank our Sponsor the Victorian Health Promotion Foundation for its continuing support and wish all clubs a most successful 1990-1991 season.

THE YEAR THAT WAS!

One of the all-time greats of World Football Ferenc PUSKAS announced as new coach at South Melbourne, while Ernie MERRICK returns from self-imposed exile to take over the reins at Sunshine. Blacktown threatens legal action against N.S.L.'s proposed franchising of clubs, and Melita Eagles end six years in the wilderness by winning promotion back to the N.S.L. in a canter. Australia's most progressive club, Marconi, announce pre-season tour of Czechoslovakia, the first such tour by an Australian club side.

Victorian representative for the N.S.L. Play-Offs is decided in court. Morwell Falcons get the nod over Brunswick, but go down over two legs to Adelaide Hellas who return after four years in exile. St. George and Wollongong City wrangle over David RATCLIFFE transfer, and N.S.L. announce Summer Season curtain raiser will be the inaugural Charity Cup between Champions Marconi and Cup Winners, Adelaide City.

Marconi's David Lowe calmly evades an out-stretched Sergio Melta in the Inaugural "Charity Cup" between the home-team Adelaide City and Marconi-Fairfield.

N.S.L. announce new sponsorship deal with QUIT for $420,000 and introduce new Information Dialling Service while the ABC TV add the well-respected John KOSMINA to their line-up. Wollongong City name the former Socceroo defender, David RATCLIFFE as player/coach, while Sunshine sign the FOSTER brothers, Craig and Paul, as well as Dave CLARKSON. Marconi pick up the Charity Cup and star striker Zlatko NASTEVSKI sets new N.S.L. record with five splendid goals in the Champions 7-0 drubbing of St. George. Eddie THOMPSON departs Sydney Olympic to take up Director of Coaching position. Mick HICKMAN takes over after a week of upheaval. Crowds are already up 25% and at the end of the month, Marconi heads eight sides on five points. Melbourne Croatia remains the only unbeaten side, and Nastevski is top of the hit parade with five goals.

Sergio MELTA joins Bugsy NYSKOHUS as only players to take 300 N.S.L. appearances and breaks the all-time record on Boxing Day at Preston. After signing for $40,000 from St. George, Scott OLLERENSHAW scores on debut for Olympic, and Kevin HAGAN shares a hat-trick as the Grand Finalists thrash Melita 5-1, who plummet to the bottom. Brian GARVEY takes over from Peter JAKSA at Adelaide Hellas, who becomes first of many coaching casualties. Sydney Olympic break ten year hoo-doo to defeat South Melbourne 1-0 courtesy of Marko PERINOVIC and substitute David BATTEN grabs amazing second-half hat-trick as Wollongong City comes from behind to down strugglers Blacktown 3-2. As the decade ends, four sides are equal top led by Olympic. Adelaide Hellas remain bottom, and Zlatko NASTEVSKI leads the scorers with seven.

South Melbourne and Melbourne Croatia successfully appeal Q.N.S.L. Tribunal decision to deduct points following crowd invasion, but are ordered to pay $5,000 fine and are placed on 12 months bond. Graham ARNOLD takes over as player/coach from Ron CORRY at Croatia, while Walter TAMANDEL is the caretaker coach at the Gabbie as Les SCHEINFLUG parts company. Zlatko NASTEVSKI will miss remainder of the season injured after only 34 minutes of his Socceroo debut. Tony VRZINA takes over the helm at Sydney Croatia. The season's biggest crowd, 10,556, witness the first Adelaide derby in four years. Outgoing Socceroo supremo Frank AROK receives deserved accolade of the Australian Medal for services to soccer.

THE YEAR THAT WAS!

February started with a good win for the Socceroos, who thrashed Torpedo MOSCOW 3-0. The win prompted National Coach Frank AROK to declare that Australian Soccer was 'beginning a new era'. Sydney's big wet plays havoc with the programme as clubs settle down to the business end of the season. Adelaide Hellas begin to climb clear of the bottom, while Olympic drop out of the five, and Apia remains on top. Blacktown, without a win in over two months, employ third coach Tony HENDERSON as their latest saviour, and first-up gain vital 3-0 victory against Adelaide Hellas. With only ten rounds left, Apia still lead while Blacktown and Adelaide Hellas begin to slip away from the field. The month then closed with the sad news of the death of long-serving Aulden BROWN, former Secretary of N.S.W. Soccer Federation for 24 years.

Wollongong City's Pat Brodnick (left) - six goals in one game, followed closely by Marconi's Zlatko Nastevski with five.

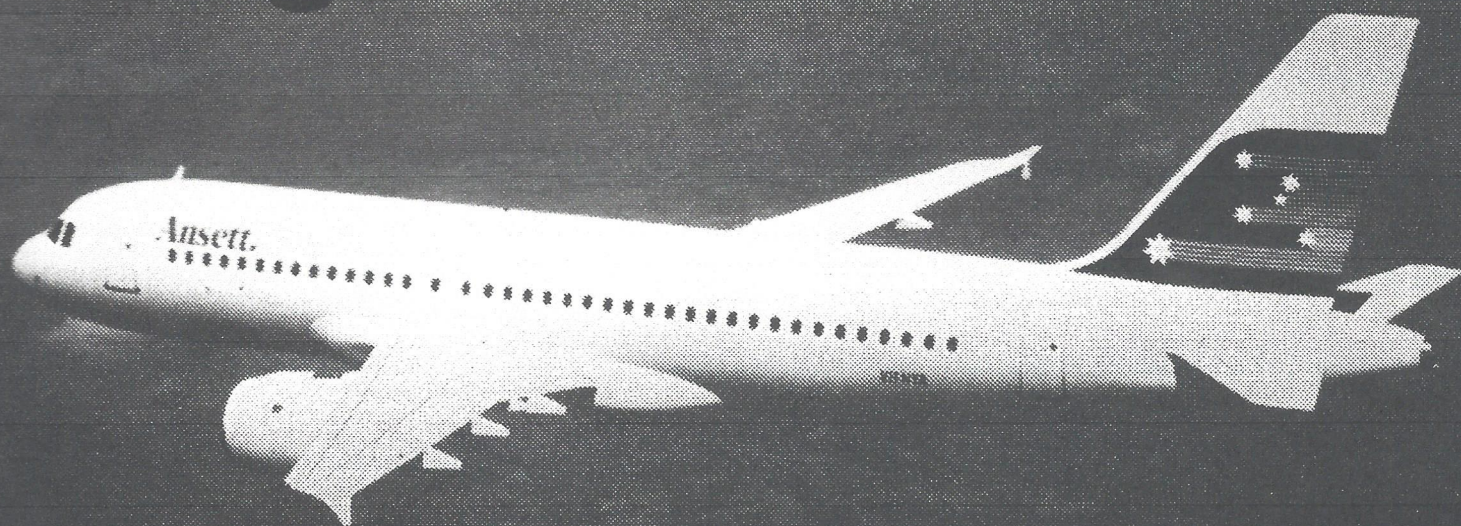

With the League fast approaching its climax, Marconi were still leading, though by a narrow one point margin from South Melbourne, with Melbourne Croatia, Adelaide City and Apia Leichhardt close on their heels, followed by a further three points by Sydney Olympic. In the end, MARCONI were first past the post, two points clear of runners-up South Melbourne. Melbourne Croatia and Adelaide City followed next, while the fifth berth went to 'outsiders' Olympic who overtook Apia when the Leichhardt team stumbled at the last hurdle losing 1-0 to Melbourne Croatia. On the National Side, Eddie THOMPSON was given the post of 'Caretaker' coach of the National Team. 10,000 people watched the two 'big' Victorians, South Melbourne and Melbourne Croatia in a thrilling 1-1 draw and eventual victory on penalties (7-6) by the latter. In the other semi-final, Sydney Olympic defeated Adelaide City 2-1, and began to hope for better things.

A narrow 1-0 win over Melbourne Croatia, sent Marconi into their 3rd Grand Final in succession. This was another tightly fought match, and Marconi made sure of their Grand Final ticket only one minute from the end, when big Fred DE JONG scored the only goal in the match. Sydney Olympic, previously considered at best as outsiders by many 'experts' made sure this would be another all-Sydney Grand Final, when they defeated South Melbourne by an identical score. Alistair EDWARDS scored the goal for Olympic. It was a record crowd of over 26,000 that saw Sydney Olympic become N.S.L. CHAMPIONS for the first time in their history, when they defeated Berti MARIANI'S Marconi 2-0, with goals from Alistair EDWARDS and Robert IRONSIDE. It was a fitting finale to a great season after the N.S.L. had moved the game to the Summer months.

By the first week in March, Pat BRODNIK hit the headlines when he scored an amazing six goals in Wollongong's 7-0 victory over Adelaide Hellas, thus breaking the five goal record set by Zlatko NASTEVSKI of Marconi earlier in the season. Blacktown had a shot in the arm with an inspiring 3-0 win against Sunshine George Cross in front of a poor crowd of only 330 at the Gabble Stadium, while at the top, Marconi came back to regain their position as leaders with a 2-0 win against Sydney Croatia. Marconi were aided by the two top Victorians Melbourne Croatia and South Melbourne who drew 1-1, both of whom now fell one point behind.

SYDNEY OLYMPIC

NSL CHAMPIONS AT LONG LAST

New South Wales Premier Mr. Nick Greiner looks on as Olympic skipper Robbie Hooker proudly displays his team's well earned prize.

by JOHN ECONOMOS

SYDNEY OLYMPIC, the notorious 'Sleeping Giant' of Australian Soccer for so many years, finally awoke in spectacular fashion to win last season's Grand Final. Olympic's victory not only brought them their first NSL championship, but simultaneously achieved sweet revenge for their 1-0 loss in the 1989 Grand Final to the same foe, Marconi.

May 20th, at 4.40 pm, referee John Santa Isabel blew his whistle to signal fulltime and thus declare Sydney Olympic the new champions of the National Soccer League of Australia.

Sydney Olympic had just defeated Marconi 2-0.

A miracle had been achieved.

In front of a massive crowd of 26,353, at the Parramatta Stadium in Sydney, (3,000 more than last year's Final), Sydney Olympic had finally crystallised their 'impossible dream'.

Starved of national success in its history stretching 32 years, Sydney Olympic in fact never looked as if they would even qualify for the Top Five Series, let alone WIN IT.

TOP FIVE SERIES

With just two rounds left before the play-offs, Sydney Olympic wasn't even in the top five.

Olympic was three League points adrift from fifth placed Apia.

Nobody at that stage gave Sydney Olympic a chance. Nobody that is but one.

Their coach.

Mick ('God') Hickman, Olympic's phlegmatic Englishman, and coach of this historically problematical and success-starved club, silently refused to yield.

Week after week, Hickman, (a bricklayer by trade), quietly and methodically went about building stability and genuine confidence into his players.

He cemented discipline and unity into his forces to combat the monumental task that laid ahead for Sydney Olympic.

Hickman, carefully steered Olympic to collect vital League points against St George and Blacktown City to delicately edge Apia out of the Top Five on goal-difference.

Olympic was now a confirmed challenger for the Top Five play-offs, even though last placed on the starting grid.

The Finals series was going to be the race of their lives and a place in the Soccer records.

Lying ahead of them on the track was some pretty stiff and illustrious opposition.

Firstly were the technically alert, well tuned Adelaide City machine, followed by the well-balanced and well-oiled 1990 NSL Cup winners, South Melbourne Hellas.

In the next lane was the fiery and tenacious Melbourne Croatia and finally the League's flagship, (often referred to as the 'Rolls Royce' team of Australian Soccer), League champions for the past two years, Marconi.

With every outing from that point, Hickman would state to the media and his players with monotonous regularity:

"We have won nothing yet. We just live to fight another day.

"We must keep our feet on the ground."

And 'feet on the ground' he kept everybody.

From that second last League match against St George, Hickman reeled off an unbelievable, if not miraculous six consecutive 'sudden-death' victories before his skipper and left-back, Robbie Hooker was finally able to lift the Champion's Cup high over his head in front of a by now delirious crowd at the Parramatta Stadium.

By that morning of the Grand Final, the Soccer fraternity, (despite Olympic's heroic effort to storm through five consecutive tense hurdles), was left wondering.

Would Sydney Olympic yet again fail to deliver?

They had qualified for four Finals in the last two seasons.

They had already played three, (two NSL Cup Finals and one Grand Final) and lost the lot.

Would it be the same this bright sunny afternoon at the Parramatta Stadium.

START OF SEASON

But let's briefly wind the clock back to the beginning of this first Summer Soccer Season.

Sydney Olympic had lost both 1989 Cup and Grand Finals and now their NSL squad was going to be severely weakened.

First, their effective striker, Alistair Edwards departed for England to try his luck with Brighton, then Watford.

Then their star attacking left midfielder, Jason Polak was sold to Greece.

This weakening of the Olympic squad was further compounded as their tough mobile centre-back, George Haniotis also took off for Greece.

And to make things even worse, their steady coach for the past three years, Eddie Thomson left Olympic after just three rounds to take up his new assignment, National Director of Coaching before his current position as National Coach.

Mick Hickman, Thomson's assistant, was immediately appointed to fill the void.

But there was more bad news for Olympic. Their one great hope left for salvation was former Kiwi international striker, Kevin Hagan signed from Apia.

Hagan with his enormous experience had galvanised the young Olympic team and provided, through his seniority, a much needed direction to capitalise on the team's pace, youth and enthusiasm.

But disaster struck Olympic midway through the season as the giant blonde warhorse broke down. Constant groin and hamstring injuries stubbornly refused to respond week after week to intensive medical treatment.

Olympic floundered as favourable results eratically surfaced.

Panic set in and a frantic push was made to expensively buy St George Socce-roo striker, Scott Ollerenshaw.

But alas Olympic's tale of woes continued as the $40,000 transferred Ollerenshaw also broke down, after playing a handful of matches.

Just weeks before the play-offs, Sydney Olympic's youngest president, (33), and Sydney solicitor, Mr. George Pashalis was able to again sign, the services of lethal striker, Alistair Edwards who had returned from his six month stint in England.

Mr. Pashalis reflected: "Looking back, that was the turning point for us."

Deadly striker, Abbas Saad relished Edwards' return and the dynamic duo were back in business once again.

Sydney Olympic's goal-scoring capacity had dramatically increased.

GRAND FINAL DAY

Having qualified for the Grand Final after a herculean effort, Mick Hickman (by now called 'God') was to do combat against his well-respected friend and boss of Marconi, Berti Mariani.

It is a well known fact that these two young NSL coaches have great respect for each other.

Mariani was the hot-favourite, having already nailed two championships in his first two years of coaching.

Hickman had yet to 'take a wicket'.

In qualifying for the Grand Final, Olympic's highly mobile and intelligent centre-back, Andrew Bernal, starred in all the preceeding Top Five Series matches.

For this young Socce-roo defender, the Grand Final was not going to be any different.

Bernal played the game of his life as he repeatedly marshalled his defence forces with lightening-fast shut-downs on all Marconi assaults.

Bernal even laid the foundations of Olympic's first goal.

Ten minutes before halftime, Marconi's flying right-back, Gary Van Egmond, raided down the right. Bernal flashed across, dispossessed Van Egmond and launched Olympic's counter-attack.

Bernal knocked the ball to Robbie Ironside who relayed to fellow midfielder, Grant Lee. Lee fired a through-ball to Edwards Dakos climbed high to nod the ball down to the laces of powerhouse midfielder, Robbie Ironside who most gratefully volleyed his 'killer-goal' from five metres into Bobby Catlin's net.

The Marconi champions were down and the rest is history.

When interviewed by television after the match, Olympic's heroic defender, Andrew ('the Birch') Bernal, although exhausted, smiled and stated:

Marconi might be called the 'Rolls Royce' team but surely Sydney Olympic today are the 'Ferraris'.

For this coming season, Sydney Olympic again has lost the services of two of their warriors.

Edwards was to be transferred to Singapore on a fulltime basis and the industriwho split the Marconi defenders Robbie Wheatley and Jean-Paul De Marigny before blasting his 12 metre left-footed drive high into Marconi's net.

Upfront, striker Abbas Saad was running riot, and not only in attack.

Saad displayed enormous maturity and responsibility with a rare hunger from a marksman to roll up his sleeves and get stuck into the tackling department to stiffen Olympic's middle line.

Saad's distribution was magnificent only surpassed by his repeated unselfish wide raids to stretch Marconi's defence.

Could Olympic hold on to their one goal lead against the League's 'Rolls Royce' team?

Sixteen minutes after the break, Olympic stopped the hearts of their sea of supporters as they rolled the scoreboard a second time.

From a well drilled routine, midfielder Grant Lee rifled a geometrically precise corner from the left that zeroed for the head of lanky sweeper, Tony Dakos.

ous central mid-fielder, Gary Phillips, after eight years with Olympic, departed for Hong Kong to further his career in his other love, surfing.

Sydney Olympic has now achieved a national championship to add to their two NSL Cup triumphs of 1983 and 1985.

N.S.L. CUP

R E P O R T

By Greg Blake - Courtesy of Australian Soccer Weekly

SOUTH MELBOURNE had been spouting for weeks that it had been playing badly but still winning. This, they insisted, was a good sign. And by the end of the 1990 Cup Final who could have argued?

Certainly not beaten Sydney Olympic which found out, to its chagrin, that good form isn't necessarily winning form.

South Melbourne stumbled and bumbled its way through much of the first half of Anzac Day's NSL Cup Final against Sydney Olympic before it sparked and powered away to a 4-1 win.

Olympic came to Melbourne with much in its favour, notwithstanding the fact that Victorian Clubs had come to grief in seven previous cup finals. Olympic even brought with it a dose of Sydney's wet and windy weather. But in the end it did not help one little bit even given that Olympic all but ran the show for the first hour.

Making the most of some glaring unforced errors, Olympic easily thwarted Souths at every turn and with Abbas Saad and the mercurial Alistair Edwards posing ever-present danger, Souths looked light years from being on course for Melbourne's first ever cup win.

But an extraordinary Kim Taliadoros goal against the run of the play in the 21st minute eventually broke the deadlock.

Taliadoros beat one defender before twisting and turning Andrew Bernal and curling a spectacular right footer home from 12 metres. Six minutes later, Edwards, until then man of the match, equalised with an equally spectacular goal as he produced a powerful 18 metre effort to beat Bruce MacLaren.

The two rousing goals served as a prelude to an inspired half hour of cup football which, although controlled by a Sydney side fired up by the deeds of Edwards and young Steve Refenes, produced spectacular action at both ends.

Paul Trimboli hit the post after a Peter Tsolakis free-kick was well stopped by Clint Gosling. Paul Wade had a header cleared off the line and MacLaren made the first of a succession of quality stops from Refenes just on half-time.

Saad, Grant, Lee, Refenes and Edwards will all look back with regret that they did not put the best of finishing touches in during Olympic's second-half purple patch.

The misses, MacLaren's brilliance and Mehmet Durakovic's goal-line clearance were as much responsible for Hellas' eventual victory as any of the goals yet to come.

Mike Petersen was remarkably frank about the 71st minute freak goal which turned the tide in South Melbourne's favour. "I'd done nothing for a whole game and I could not believe it when the ball went in" he admitted. "I'll have to see the replay to see how I scored..."

The goal came from an inspired through-ball from Wade to Petersen, with the latter spearing the ball past Gosling and seemingly toward the touchline.

Petersen slid in to hook the ball back, and without so much as daylight to be seen between the posts from that angle, managed to send the ball spinning into the empty net.

The killer goal came just a minute later when Wade was pushed from behind by Robbie Ironside as he ran to meet Danny Wright's pass inside the area. Trimboli converted the penalty-kick to make it 3-1 and Tsolakis rounded off a memorable night for the Melbourne club by clipping a shot under the hapless Gosling with six minutes remaining.

South Melbourne rewrote the record books. It posted its best ever win over Olympic and the 4-1 scoreline was the biggest in NSL Cup Final history.

Paul Wade goes it alone with a header for Hellas against a packed Olympic defence in the 1990 N.S.L. Cup Final.

Every goal. News and views. Catch it all on The Big Match with John Bell and John Kosmina.

CHARITY CUP

R E P O R T

by Alan Clark

Adelaide City's Paul Shillabeer attempts to sit down on the job as Marconi's Peter Katholos streaks away.

CHARITY began away from home in November for glamour Sydney club Marconi-Fairfield. The jet-lagged reigning NSL champion flew in from an ultra-successful tour of Czechoslovakia for a 2-1 win in the champagne, inaugural National Charity Cup final against Adelaide City at South Australia's Hindmarsh Stadium.

Two of Australia's brightest young stars jumped to prominence in the showcase season opening. Cup winner City gave a debut to striker Carl Veart, a raw striking talent signed from SA State League club, Salisbury United. Marconi unveiled the precocious talents of Mr. Versatile, Paul Okon.

Both teenagers went on to have a glamour NSL year, culminating in them earning international recognition and success for their country.

The Charity Cup clash, a brilliantly innovative idea in which three major charities benefitted, produced a match befitting two of Australia's more skilled teams.

Kiwi international Fred deJong always is a worry to City and he proved that again here. The gangly striker, who now is bidding to make his name in Europe, found himself in handy position to net the crumbs when Robert Zabica - later to go on to international stardom with the Socceroos - could only parry a sizzling shot from Tom McCulloch early in the first-half.

But City, after a lethargic start, lifted the tempo and had the jaded champion on the ropes when former Marconi striker Steve Maxwell netted from a crisp Veart shot that had cannoned off a post.

Shrewd coach Berti Mariani, though, masterfully manouvered his troops and, with Peter Katholos having a calming influence in midfield, Marconi managed to come back for glory.

And DeJong was involved.

He collapsed in the box late in the second-half after a collision with City's "tough as teak" defender Neville Flounders, who was left injured on the ground. SA referee Tom McRoe awarded a penalty and ace marksman, Zlatko Nasteviski, whose presence later was cruelly denied to Australia's soccer public through injury, made his usual immaculate job from the spot.

Victorious coach Mariani said after the game; "Under the circumstances of us just arriving back in Australia, flying over to SA and playing Adelaide City, I was pleased with the result."

"Taking everything into consideration, it was a good performance."

City coach Zoran Matic said his team was left with much work to do after the game.

"Marconi had much more penetration than us. We made several fundamental mistakes."

Can chip eaters fight cholesterol?

They can if the chips are fresh and cooked in Crisco Canola Oil.

This is more than just another light, healthy vegetable oil from the makers of Australia's number one cooking oil. Crisco Canola oil actually contains less saturated fat than any other cooking oil you can buy.

Even more importantly, this amazing mono-unsaturated oil is more than just free of cholesterol; it actually helps reduce the cholesterol your body has already built up.

So with Crisco Canola oil you can actually cut your cholesterol level without cutting out the foods you enjoy. No wonder Crisco Canola oil is approved by the National Heart Foundation, as part of a diet low in saturated fat and low in cholesterol.

You'll never need to sacrifice flavour for your health's sake again. For further information please write to Crisco Canola, PO Box 57, Mascot, NSW 2020.

Fight cholesterol with every bite.

NORTHERN DIVISION

by DAVID COOPER

SOUTHERN Division champions Melbourne Croatia are the newly crowned National Youth League Champions after they defeated their Northern Division Counterparts, APIA-Leichhardt in the National final.

Melbourne Croatia earned their place in the final when they defeated a gallant Altona Gate on penalties in the Southern Division Grand Final. Both their teams proved to be the most consistent sides in the league with Melbourne Croatia finishing as minor premiers by three points.

APIA on the other hand caused a major shock when they defeated their more fancied opponents, the Australian Institute of Sport (A.I.S.) 2-0 in the Northern Division Grand Final. The A.I.S. had carried all before them during the season, finishing four points clear of APIA and losing only one game in the premiership rounds. However, APIA who had one of the youngest squads in the league, found their form on final day and proved much too strong for the A.I.S. side.

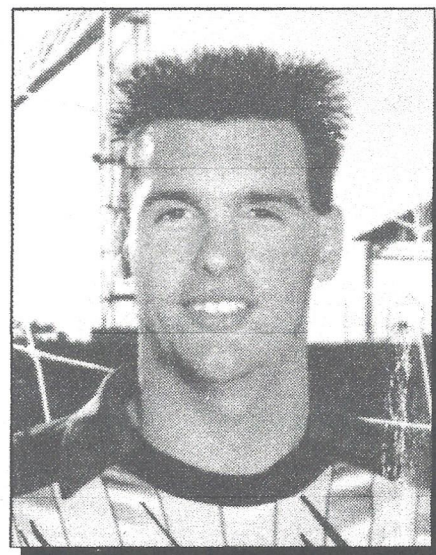

1990 N.S.L. National Youth League Champions in the Southern Division - Melbourne Croatia.

The National Final saw a tight struggle go Melbourne Croatia's way, with the final score being 2-1.

Both competitions saw the emergence of some young stars, that by the end of the season were playing regularly in 1st grade. These players included Joe Bacak (Melbourne Croatia), Lou Triantafyllou (Sydney Olympic), Gary Comerford and Damon Langan (Blacktown City) and Con Boutsinas (South Melbourne Hellas White).

In all, the inaugural 1989/90 Youth League Summer Soccer season was a success for everyone concerned and congratulations must go to Melbourne Croatia as the National Youth League Champions.

SOUTHERN DIVISION

by ROY HAY

THE two best teams reached the Grand Final of the National Youth League (Southern Division) after an exciting and very competitive season.

Melbourne Croatia as minor premiers met Altona Gate, which finished runner-up after the home and away matches. Melbourne Croatia won the Grand Final on penalties by four goals to two after a one-all draw in normal time. Melbourne Croatia went on to win the National Youth League play-off against Apia Leichhardt by two goals to one, scored by Joe Bacak and Tom Lovric.

South Melbourne Hellas White and Preston Makedonia also made the top four play-offs, shading out Sunshine George Cross, winner for the past four years.

The overlap with the senior Victorian season placed great strains on the local clubs, while a spat of injuries meant that most of the NSL clubs drew on their best Youth League players during the course of the year. Continuity was difficult to maintain and it was teams like Croatia and Altona Gate who solved the problems best. Croatia stuck to a settled group of youth players throughout, often playing without established seniors, while Altona Gate drew on the next generation of young players coming through the club to replace those who had made the jump to the State League team. Saso Becvinovski of JUST was named player of the year in the NYL (South).

Early in the season, new entry Geelong City, a team drawn from all the clubs in Geelong, set a surprising pace and headed the ladder for a few weeks, with victories over JUST, Preston and South Melbourne Hellas White. Hellas, which began with one team, had so many promising players coming through, that it decided to enter a second team. This was good for the competition and the players concerned and George Lambetsas and his colleagues are to be congratulated for their efforts in moulding what became a fine side by the end of the year. Hellas White under Kris Kalifatidis was next to take up the running and was unbeaten after eight rounds.

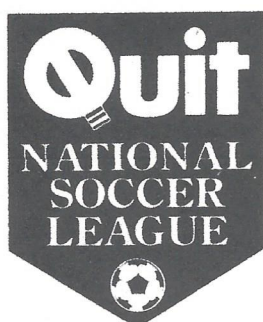

By the end of the season Melbourne Croatia and Altona Gate occupied the top two places in the league, though Hellas White did everything it could to put pressure on the leaders with huge wins over Clifton Hill and Geelong City and a four-one defeat of Altona Gate. The last place was contested till the end, and JUST, George Cross and Preston scrapping for it. Preston which had started slowly struck its best form at the end and went into the play-offs on a roll. It continued this progress with a relatively easy three-nil defeat of Hellas White in the elimination final and led Croatia by a Joe Markovac goal until deep in the second half of the Preliminary Final. An own goal and a couple of self-inflicted disasters in extra time brought its excellent season to an end.

Altona Gate booked its place in the final with a two-one win over Croatia in the Qualifying final and the Grand Final was as evenly contested as could be expected, with the two teams locked at one-all after extra time and penalty kicks having to be used to settle the destination of the championship in Croatia's favour.

Many individual players have made an impact in the NYL this year, with several going on to establish places in their respective senior teams. Con Boutsianis of Hellas White headed the goal-scoring list, though Saso Becvinovski who is a regular in the State League with JUST led the way for much of the season. As already noted he was the NYL player of the year in the Southern Division, while fellow Victorian and young Soccerroo, Kris Trajanovski took out the Northern Division award and was top scorer in that league. Joe Bacak of Croatia has been consistently on target and has done a great deal of selfless hard work for his team. Kevin Muscat of George broke through into the NSL and Wayne Attard and Athan Zacharias also had appearances. Joe Markovac, Vitale Ferrante, Robert Spasevski and Robert Momirovski of Preston are on the verge of senior places, while at Altona Gate, Robert Stojcevski, Zlate Markovski and Robert Trajkovski are in the transition to the State League team. Hus Skenderovic, Paul Jurcic, and Mark Silic of Croatia, Lori Ristevski at Preston, Peter Nikolakopoulos at Hellas, Marjan Tasevski from Altona Gate and Hau Tsung Lay at East Richmond were among players who impressed by their steadiness and contribution to team efforts. The future of Australian soccer is bright when talent like this is just waiting to break through.
